STATUS REPORT

AND NOW come the debtors, James R. Grose and Patricia R. Grose, by and through their undersigned attorney Joan Shinavski, and respectfully represent as follows:

1. Counsel for the Debtors conferred with counsel for PNC Bank and PNC Bank has declined to amend the loan modification agreement to reduce the interest rate to the current contract rate.
2. Debtors filed for and obtained an amended wage attachment order on November 12, 2019, at Docket No. 105, and said motion was granted on November 14, 2019, at Docket No. 106. Payments from the amended modified wage attachment order have already begun remitting to the Chapter 13 Trustee.
3. Debtors remitted an additional payment of $505.69 on November 25, 2019, to compensate for the fact that an amended wage attachment order was not in effect for November 2019. Debtors' total payments for November 2019 are less than the $2,216.00 specified in the Order dated November 7, 2019 (Docket No. 103) because their wage attachments remit on a bi-weekly basis, resulting in two months of the year with payments greater than $2,216.00, and ten months with payments less than $2,216.00.

WHEREFORE, the debtors, James R. Grose and Patricia R. Grose, respectfully file this Status Report.

Dated: December 14, 2019

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Joan Shinavski
